

KARUNISAI OVERVIEW

Ragas for Recovery

What is Musopathy?

Musopathy is a unique approach that harnesses the power of Carnatic music to aid both mental and physical health. It combines traditional rhythms and melodies with physiotherapy to enhance recovery, reduce stress, and improve well-being.

Why Carnatic Music?

🎵 Scientific Benefits – Rhythms (tala) & melodies (raga) improve mood, clarity, and stress relief.

🎼 Ragas like Anandabhairavi & Hamsanandi aid in pain relief and relaxation.

🌐 Cultural Relevance – Resonates with South Asian communities, making therapy more effective.

💰 Fundraising Power – Live performances raise awareness and funds for medical support.

How Musopathy Works

🧠 Enhances cognitive function

🩺 Reduces pain & stress

🎵 Synchronizes brain activity

💊 Lowers medication reliance

Backed by Research

Dr. Goshal (Johns Hopkins University) found that music therapy enhances recovery by improving brain function and emotional well-being.

Our Mission

🏥 Many hospitals, like those in Chankanai, lack essential physiotherapy equipment.

🎯 Our goal: Provide modern devices to improve care in underrepresented and war-affected areas.

💪 Helps patients regain mobility, prevent health issues, and enhance independence.

KARUNISAI CHECKPOINTS

Schedule Checkpoint		Date Started	Process Completed	Date Completed
Establish Collaboration with Musicians		August 11th, 2024	Contacted Mr. Rajagopalan and eSvara team about cause and finalized idea and songs for event	August 15th, 2024
Contact Dr. S.T and Chankanai Divisional Hospital		August 17th, 2024	Reached out to Dr. Thangamuthu explaining event and consent for case study	August 25th, 2024
Music Compositions		August 16th, 2024	All 10 Carnatic songs were composed and sent for eSvara team to began practice	September 17th, 2024
Event Planning (Time, Location, Date, Concept)		August 29th, 2024	Connected with venue and booked Kirkland Performing Arts Center	October 19th, 2024
Advertising Karunisai		October 22nd, 2024	Distributed flyers to community organizations through digital channels and a ticketing platform	December 13th, 2024
Day of Event		December 14th, 2024	Karunisai production set up and execution	December 14th, 2024
Funds Delivered		December 17th, 2024	Worked with Temple of Music to send funds to Chankanai Divisional Hospital	December 20th, 2024
Report of Patient Progress		December 22nd, 2024	Received case study results from Dr. Thangamuthu and finished analysis	January 13th, 2025

KARUNISAI METRICS

KEY METRIC	TARGET	OUTCOME	STATUS
Adherence to milestones (OTD)	0 delays	0 delays
Budget variance	$0.00	$0.00
Number of ticket sales	375	585
Number of attendees	400	602
Customer satisfaction score	4	4.5

KARUNISAI

Ragas for Recovery

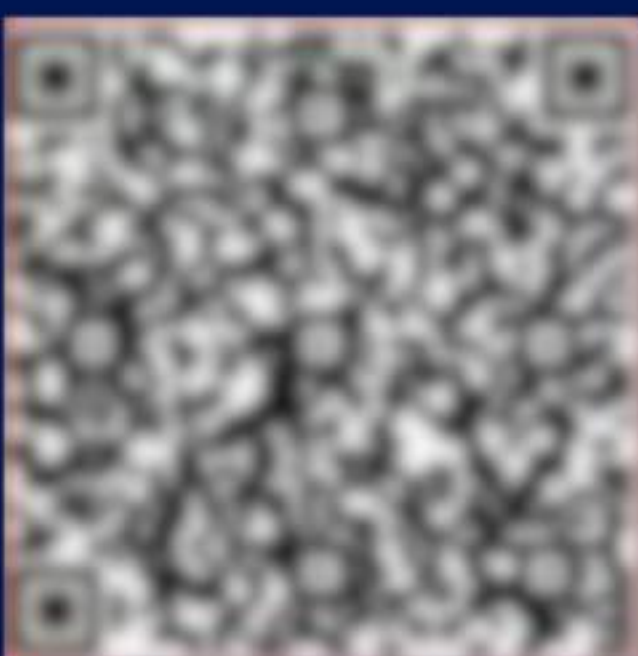

Saturday, December 14th

2:00 PM - 4:00 PM

6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Kirkland Performing Arts Center
620 Market St, Kirkland, WA 98033

Enjoy the spectacle of Tamil culture, traditions, and history, displayed through the grace and power of the traditional Carnatic music, with music composed by Grammy award-winning musician, Ganesh Rajagopalan!

Adults - $20

Children under 10 - Free

This performance is a fundraiser for the Chankanai Hospital, which is working towards sponsoring rehabilitation equipment for Sri Lankan peoples who are injured and affected.

SCHEDULE

RECAP OF KARUNISAI

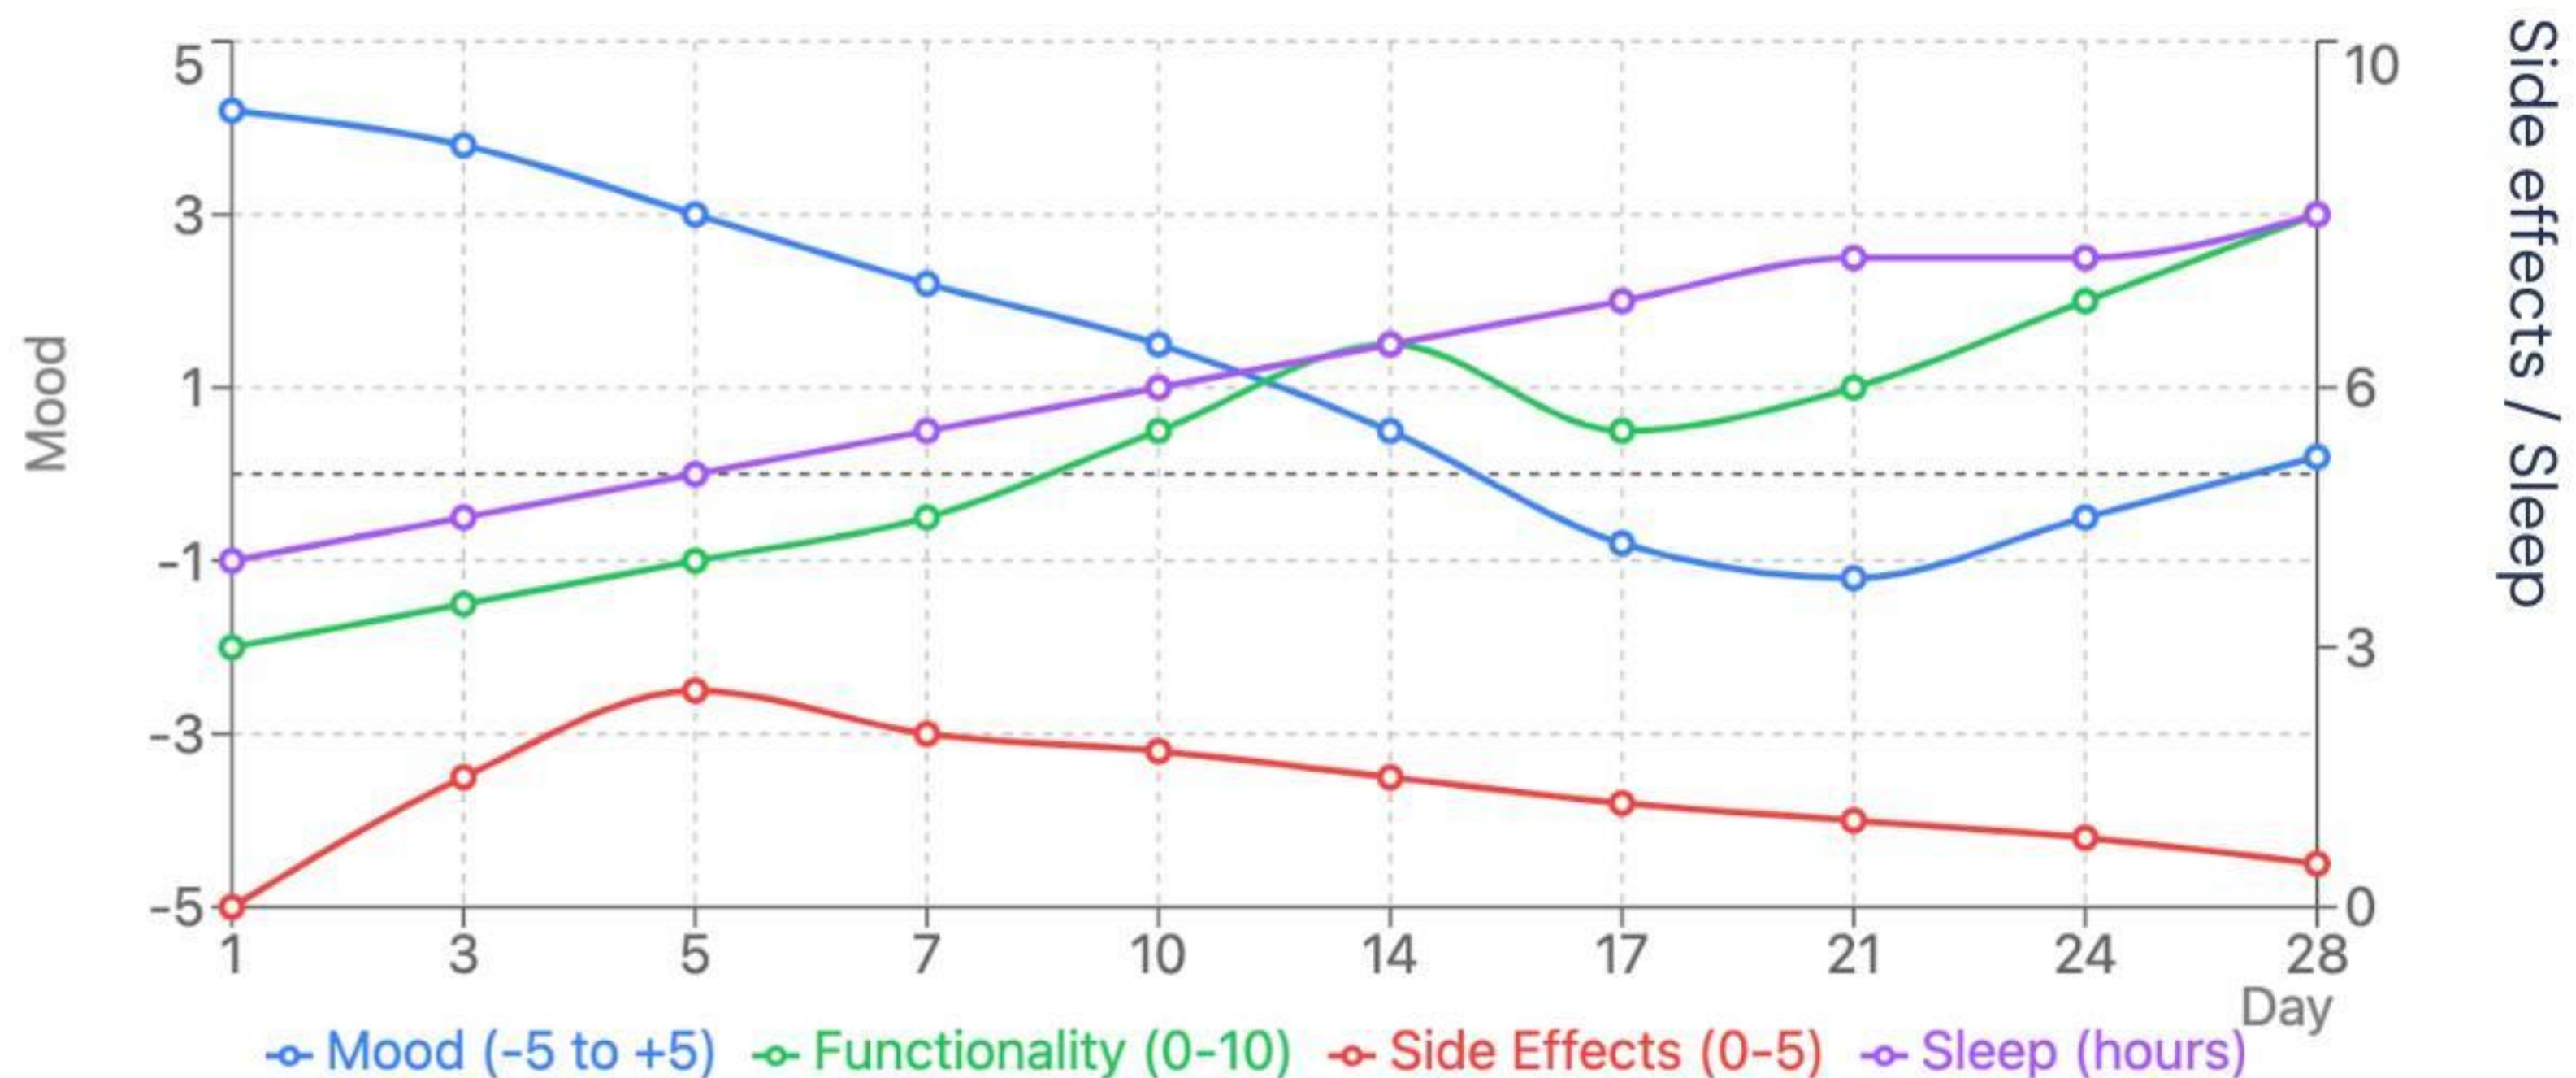

KARUNISAI CASE STUDY

Analysis of Patient Recovery

4-Week Bipolar Patient Improvement Chart

Key Metrics Tracked:

- Mood: -5 (severe depression) to +5 (severe mania), 0 is balanced
- Functionality: 0-10 scale (higher is better)
- Side Effects: 0-5 scale (lower is better)
- Sleep: Hours per night

Week 1:

Music: Raga Maya-malava-gowla

Outcome: Improved focus, less anxiety.

Week 2:

Music: Raga Sankarabharanam

Outcome: Emotional stability, active in discussions.

Week 3:

Music: Raga Madhyamavati

Outcome: Reduced stress, started daily walks.

Week 4:

Music: Raga Hamsadhwani

Outcome: Increased confidence, better social interactions.

Result: Improved emotional regulation, focus, and rehabilitation engagement.

Reinforced Carnatic music's therapeutic potential.